

NSC BRIEFING

25X1

19 September 1956

CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY 8th CONGRESS

- I. The Chinese Communist Party's 8th Congress, its first since 1945, opened in Peiping on 15 September and will probably close next week.
- II. The Congress has thusfar given little attention to the Taiwan question. The major policy address, by Communist China's No. 2 man, Liu Shao-chi, while repeating past statements of the regime's intent to use force if necessary, emphasized the theme of "peaceful liberation". [REDACTED]

25X1

25X1

25X1